Arabian horses caught my eyes when I was 3 years old and... I stuck to it since...

When - as a teenager - I got my first camera my eyes were caught by horses of course through the lens.

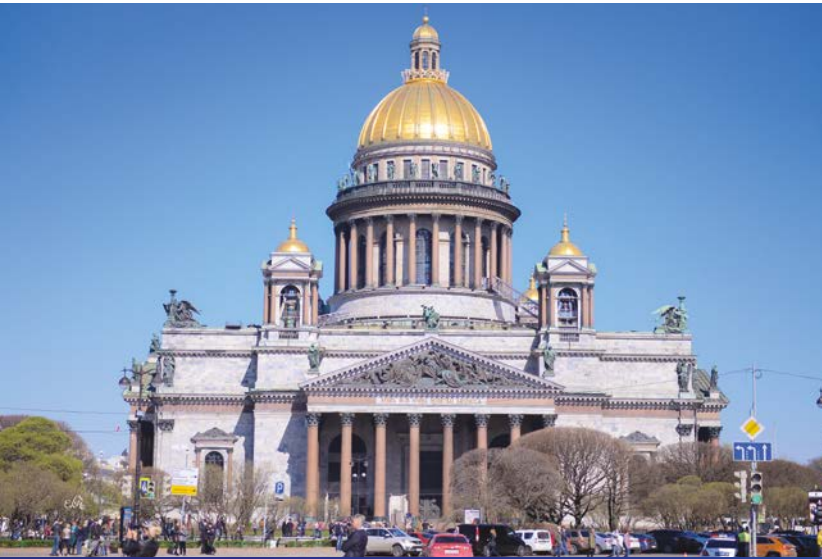

On my photos I try to show prettiness and grace of these wonderful animals as well as to catch and perpetuate the beauty of short-lived magic moments with their attend. My inspiration, at the beginning of my adventure with horse photography, were Zofia Raczowska's wonderful photos.

I hope one can still see trace of the very same spirit of big love to the horses and to the photography.

So I'm going to invite you all to my world. Please enjoy.
